

Canebrake Genealogical & Historical Society

~ Conecuh County, Alabama ~

2009 Membership Application

As this a web-based society the only requirement for membership is an annual submission of one genealogical or historical document for publication on this web site. This submission may include, but is not limited to: obituaries, cemetery surveys, biographies, wills, deeds, census transcriptions, family histories, family photos, tombstone photos, or Bible records. The submission must pertain to Conecuh County, Alabama, and must not contain any copyrighted materials that you do not have permission to use. All submissions will be posted on this website with credit given to the submitter. If you wish, your e-mail address will be included with your submission so that you may be contacted by fellow researchers. You may submit material as often as you wish. If you do not have family information available to post on the web site but would still like to become a member, we will recognize your dues as a gift to the organization.
